

Sixth Annual Nature Daze

Saturday, September 8, 2012

CAMP RANCHO FRAMASA

2230 CLAYLICK ROAD

NASHVILLE, IN 47448

9:00 AM TO 3:00 PM

Whether you own one acre or 500 acres, or if managing your land has ever made you dazed and confused, come out and join us for an enlightening day at Camp Rancho Framasa in beautiful Brown County. Resource professionals will be on hand to present information on identifying and controlling invasive plants, conservation options for landowners, gardening with native plants and nature photography.

Nature Daze is an outreach program sponsored by the Brown County Native Woodlands Project (BCNWP) to help landowners better understand the importance of managing their property to create resilient native habitat that is free of invasive plants.

This year's keynote will be given by Rebecca W. Dolan, PhD, Director, Friesner Herbarium, Butler University, "How Invasives Impact Biodiversity".

Kids Program

CYO Camp Rancho Framasa staff will provide programs for kids ages 5 through 15 whose parents and/or grandparents are attending Nature Daze. Kids under the age of 5 that wish to attend the Kids Program must be accompanied by an adult. Program topics include Be a Tree, Tree ID and Scavenger Hunt, Walk in the Woods, Sustainable Living, Creek Stomp and Multimedia Art Project with Local artist Andi Bartels!!

---

A free picnic style lunch featuring
Gnaw Mart pulled pork sandwiches will be served.

Native plants will be available for purchase throughout the day.
